

THIS YEAR, I'M GIVING UP PRESENTS

This year, I'm donating my birthday to Mercy Ships New Zealand. By giving up presents and asking for donations to Mercy Ships instead, I am helping to bring hope and healing to the world's forgotten poor – a gift worth more than diamonds! By helping me in my Mercy Milestones campaign, you will receive the gift of knowing you have done something extraordinary for someone who can never repay you. And the donations are tax-deductible!

You can give your donations to me to forward to Mercy Ships Australia, or donate directly by cheque, credit card or online. Simply visit www.mercyships.org.nz or call 0800 637 297 (and don't forget to tell them your donation is in my honour).

I would really appreciate your support and hope you can join me in raising money for Mercy Ships.
